Just as they are warm in winter to sleep upon, so they are cool in summer to sleep under. Some people may call them blankets, but the word is entirely too warm to describe them justly. Those who know how cool they are for summer coverings insist on calling them sheets, which is the proper name, because of their light weight and coolness.

War Officially Reported.

GERMAN STATEMENT.

BERLIN, June 9, via London, 3:35 p.m.:

In the western theater: Enemy forces commencing an attack yesterday afternoon on the eastern slope of the Lorett hills were driven off by our fire. An enemy attack today on the eastern slope of the same hills failed. The last group of houses in the village of Neuville was left in possession of the enemy during the night. To the east of Neuville we defeated repeated attacks of the French with heavy losses to the enemy.

In the district to the east of Hebuterne a battle again is raging after an unsuccessful attack of the French in the early morning hours. An enemy attack in the forest of Le Pretre was repulsed with sanguinary losses. Fighting continues for a small part of the outer trenches. Eastern theater of war: The eastern bank of the River Windau in Ruvy, northeast of Kurachany, has been captured by us.

Attacking forces are approaching the town of Shavil (in Kovno) from the southwest. On the Dubysa the enemy's northern wing has been driven back in a southeasterly direction. By an encircling attack our foremost line has reached the highway of Betigol-Algile.

South of the Niemen river the Russians retreated in the direction of Kovno after stubborn fights at Dembowaduda and Kozlisk. Three hundred prisoners and 200 machine guns were captured. During the pursuit which followed we gained the fortified positions facing Kovno on the high road between Mariampol and Kovno.

In the southeastern theater: East of Premysl the situation remains unchanged. To the northeast of Zuzawa troops under Gen. Linsingen brought the Russian counter-attack to a standstill. Further to the south fighting is in progress for possession of the hills to the east of Kalusa and west of Jezewol.

Stanislaw already is in our possession. We took 4,500 men prisoners and captured 13 machine guns.

TURKISH STATEMENT.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 8, via London, June 9, 11:25 a.m.:

On the Dardanelles front there was artillery fighting Tuesday. Fire broke out on an enemy transport struck by our shells. The vessel listed and soon sank. Another transport hastily left its anchorage.

BRITISH STATEMENT.

LONDON, June 9:

Field Marshal Sir John French, in a report on the fighting along the western line, says: The situation on our front has not changed since the last communication of June 4. There has been less activity on the part of the artillery. On the 6th in front of the Plogsteert wood we successfully exploded a mine under the German trenches, destroying three hundred yards of the parapet. We have brought down two German aeroplanes, one opposite our right by gunfire, and the other in the neighborhood of Ypres, as the result of an engagement in the air with one of our aeroplanes.

BELGIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

Brussels, June 9:

During the night of June 6-7 there was intermittent cannon and rifle firing along the front.

VIENNA, Austria, June 8, via London, June 9:

In the districts of the Pruth and Diester (Galicia) the troops of the Teutonic allies yesterday prosecuted an attack along the Lanczyn-Nadworna-Kalusz line and pushed back the enemy toward Stanislaw and Halicz. Further progress was made on the left bank of the Diester, east and north of Zuzawa, 6,200 Russians being captured. Otherwise the situation is unchanged.

In the Italian coastal district the enemy apparently is preparing a general attack against our positions on the Isonza river. In his isolated attacks heretofore near Gradisca and Grado he has been repulsed with heavy losses.

In the Carnian and Tyrol frontier districts the Italians have been keeping up artillery fire without success. An Alpine detachment which occupied Montepiano, south of Landau, was driven off by our troops. The district of Ala was visited by plundering Garibaldians.

The Italian alpine Citta di Ferrara, returning from Fiume this morning, was attacked, set on fire and destroyed by our naval aeroplanes. It was commanded by Lieut. Glasling, 48, and Lieut. von Pritsch, 40, as observer. Two officers and five men of the crew were captured.
